The National Association of Social Workers is the provider of CEUs for the OSSWA conference. Membership supports the work of NASW. NASW advocates for legislation and policy that benefits our clients and you as a social worker – student loan forgiveness, higher salaries, and workplace safety. As a member of NASW, in addition to the benefits of advocacy, you will have access to free or discounted CEUs; ethics consultation line; discounted liability insurance; national and state JobBanks; networking opportunities; and the most up-to-date information concerning the field of social work with 10 issues of NASW News, four issues of the journal Social Work, and bi-monthly Ohio Chapter newsletters. For school social workers, NASW offers regular practice perspectives that covers topics ranging from bullying in schools to addressing the emotional needs of older youth. Also, there is a certification through NASW you can earn to become a certified school social work specialist (C-SSWS). Being a member of NASW strengthens your identity as a professional social worker. Call 1-800-742-4089 to join today!
